ORDER

Defendant Jalen Cormarrius Terry moved to dismiss counts three and seven of the Indictment on July 17, 2018 on the grounds that the offenses charged do not categorically qualify as crimes of violence. ECF No. 112. The court ordered the government to respond within fourteen days. ECF No. 115. At the status conference held on August 1, 2018, counsel for several defendants expressed an interest in joining the motion or filing similar motions based on these counts or others. ECF No. 136. The court thereafter stayed the government's deadline to respond in order to more efficiently brief any challenges to the Indictment based on the definition of a crime of violence under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c). ECF No. 137.

Accordingly, defendants are hereby DIRECTED to file any motions to dismiss counts three and seven of the Indictment or any other challenges to the Indictment based on the definition of a crime of violence under § 924(c) within thirty (30) days of the date of this order. The government is DIRECTED to file its response within thirty (30) days of the defendants' motions. Defendants may file any replies within fourteen (14) days of the government's responsive brief. Should the court deem oral argument necessary, the motions will be heard during the next status conference.

It is SO ORDERED.
